

ART SCULPTURE TREASURE HUNT

Ahooy all ye public art fans! This treasure hunt is a fun guide for visiting all of the public artworks on the Lakewood Civic Center Plaza (480 S. Allison Pkwy). Use the clues to find all of the artworks and you can earn a prize from the Alameda Gateway Community Association!

Clue #1 I am the biggest, baddest art sculpture on the plaza and I have lived here the longest. What's my name?

Clue #2 Find the 2 best friends. What are they doing? What do you like to do with your best friend?

Clue #3 Peek a boo, I see you! What do you see when you look through my key hole?

Clue #4 I am a fly that has no wings. Which sculpture am I?

more clues on back

Sculptures are displayed by the Alameda Corridor Business Improvement District and City of Lakewood HCA program.

Clue #5 My wings let me fly high in the sky. Where would you go if you could fly?

Clue #6 Look for the sculpture that looks like a nest. What kind of creature do you think lives here?

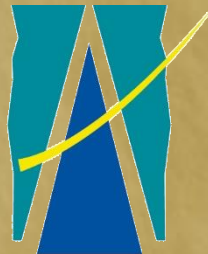

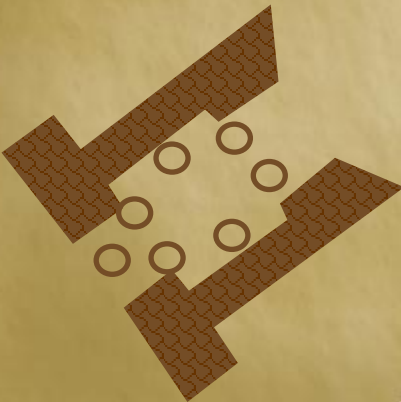

Clue #7 I have a neck that is long and can be used to play a song. Who am I? What other musical instrument do you see on the plaza?

Clue #8 I have flown a little farther away from my other friends on the plaza. Can you find me? Whose memory do I honor?

Congratulations Matey! You have completed the treasure hunt. Bring this map to the Lakewood Cultural Center box office to claim your prize on June 1 through June 9th.

Color in each art location once you find it.
